GRAND ARMY BUGLE NOTES.

SOME NEW RULES AND REGULATIONS.

VETERANS OF THE WAR URGED TO REMAIN OUT OF THE ORGANIZATION NO LONGER.

Phil Kearny Post, No. 8, has been getting out new set of rules and regulations under the anspices of the Council of Administration composed of William of the Council of Administration composed of William C. Munroc, chairman; James S. de Palos, recorder; Dennts Farrell, George Lyman, J. P. Kevill and Thomas Hillman. Among the new provisions the following is to go into effect December 2, 1892;
All applications for enlistment by transfers, for reinstatement, or from recruit, must be accompanied by a proposition fee of at least $5, to be returned in case of rejection, and $5 additional on the applicant presenting ion, and $5 additional on the applicant pr himself for muster. Should any candidate fall to appea for muster within three months after being notified by the adjutant of his election, he shall forfeit the proposition fee, and shall only be admitted by renewal of application

Applicants for reinstatement for the purpose of being transferred to another post (see Sec. 4, Art. 3) shall pay the sum of $10. assessments hereafter can only be made by a two-thirds vote of the post, after notice given at the previous encampment of the object, which must be of the G. A. R. kind. No appropriations can be made, or pay-G. A. R. kind. No appropriations can be made, or pay-ments by the quartermaster, in any one quarter, until the encampment rent, department dues, and funeral benefits for said quarter have first been reserved. All surplus-money belonging to the post after all legitimate expenses have been provided for, is pledged and held sacred for the benefit of the sick and distressed comrades of the post, and the widews, heirs, and next of kin of deceased com-rades of this post.

Article IX, which treats of the "Rights and Benefits of Members," provides that on the death of a comrade n good standing and entitled to benefit, the sum of $100 shall be paid from the fund of the post within thirty days after said death, to the person previously designated by the deceased comrade and recorded by the adjutant. Dothe deceased comrade and recorded by the adjustant nations in excess of $10 require a two-thirds vote of the post. No appropriation can be made from the post funds for a present or testimonial of any kind to any person under any circumstances. No comrade can claim any benefit or assistance until he shall have been a member in benefit or assistance until he shall have been a member in good standing at least six months, unless such privilege is accorded by a two-thirds vote of the comrades present at a regular encampment, and no comrade shall receive relief from the post when suffering from indisposition or which is the result of intemperance or other in moral conduct. The post uniform consists of double-breasted blue frock coat, G. A. R. buttons and blue pants, cap, embroidered wreath with G. A. R. 8 enclosed, and gilt belt and side arms.

Commander-in-Chief John Palmer, wants the 500,000 veterans of the war who are not yet members of the Grand Army of the Republic to lose no time in entering the fold. General Palmer expects those who know the advantages of membership to seek out their companions-in-arms who ought to be members, and use every personal effort to swell the ranks. Every soldier and sailor of the war ought to be a G. A. R. man.

"In union there is strength." Stephen M. Long, president of the National Association Union Ex-Prisoners of War, has issued an address to his comrades urging them to unite in obtaining from the next Congress a bill providing that soldiers a day for the period of their confinement in Southern on pens. It is claimed with apparent good reason that there is nothing excessive in this request from men who were not only robbed of all they possessed when captured, but are now broken down in health by their confinement and sufferings while in the hands of the enemy. The officers of the association for the ensuing year are president, Stephen M. Long, East Orange, N. J.; vice-president, Marion T. Anderson, Washington, D. C.; secretary and treasurer, L. P. Williams, (Postoffice box, 227, Washington, D. C.); chaplain, the Rev. John S. Ferguson, Keokuk, Iowa,; historian, Warren Lee Goss, Norwich, Conn. State vice-presi-dents-California, C. T. annual convention will be held at Washington, D. C., during the Grand Army Encampment.

Rear-Admiral Wells and Commodore Osborn, of the National Association of Naval Veterans, met Commodore Saville and Secretary Durton, of the Baltimore Naval Association, at the St. Cloud Hotel on Thursday evening, and perfected the outline plan for the great naval demonstration to be held in Baltimore next plant. The convention will assemble on the Thursday.

when a grand reception will be given to all naval veterans and distinguished guests. The naval parade will take place on Friday, and from present indications there will be at least 10,000 men in line. In the afternoon there will be a naval demonstration in the harbor by United States war vessels. urday morning the business meeting of the National Association will be opened, and adjourned at 1 o'clock, when the delegates and their ladies will embark on an excursion steamer and proceed to Bay Ridge, a beautiful summer resort, returning to the city abou 10 o'clock. On Sunday special services will be held in several of the leading churches, where appropriate exercises will be conducted, and which the naval veterans will attend. On Monday the convention will resume its business, adjourning in the afternoon. On Tuesday the naval veterans will be transported in a special train over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Grand Army. The citizens of Baltimore are very much warmed up to make this a great event, and already $25,000 has been subscribed to carry out the already $25,000 has been subscribed to carry out the plan.

This will be the first grand reunion of naval veterans ever held in this country, and all officers and men who served in the Navy from 1861 to 1865 are invited to participate, whether they are or are not members of the 6. A. R. or kindred organizations.

Admiral Wells will issue at an early day General Order No. 2, in which the new regulations for uniforming the twenty-five local associations will be promulgated.

IN THE POLITICAL FIELD.

Tammany Hall, and incidentally Roswell P. Flower, may realize at some time not far from November 3 that a still hunt even in New-York City is not productive of the best results. Money cannot buy patriot ism. It will buy voters, as Richard Croker well knows, but there is a class of people in tris city who are not actuated by mercenary motives this fall. These people are stirred by a periotic desire to see Tammany Hall defeated, witr the hope that in the defeat a Re publican Legislature and a Republican Governor will enact new laws which will permit the great city of New-York to crawl from under the heel of Tammany.

Simon W. Rosendale, of Albasy, candidate on the Tammany Hall ticket for Attorney-General, does not believe in long campaigns. He says that the people of the State are stirred up too often in political canvasses, and that a week or ten days ought to be long enough for the people to form opinion upon the issues presented. Mr. Rosendale is not the only can didate on the Tammany Hall ticket who deprecates the vigorous campaign which Mr. Fassett is making. They all shake their heads and listen mournfully to the doleful tales coming in from up the country about the great impression the Republican candidate for Governor is making.

Richard Croker does not believe in speech-making His experience as a politician has taught him that it is best not to let the people decide intelligently which is the right and which is the wrong side. Mr. Croker believes in discipline, and that more can be accomplished by sending out in the last part of a campaign a multitude of falsehoods than by boldly debating the issues upon the stump. As Mr. Croker believes, so does Mr. Flower. It is understood that the Demoimprisoned for sixty days or more shall receive $2 cratic Literary Committee is already manufacturing fnischoods, which will be sent out broadcast a week before election. Mr. Flower is relying upon being elected in this manner, and therefore will not make speeches throughout the State.

The election of Flower now means something more than putting the representative of Tammany Hall in executive mansion at Albany. that Flower would be elected which the Democrats possessed soon after the Saratoga Convention has gone. The canvass now means something more than a State election. It means to the Democrats that, by liook or by crook, Flower must be elected. If he is not, the chances of securing the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1892, on the part of Cleveland or Hill, or even Flower, are hopeless. Therefore, an effore is being made to draw all factions together, and again divert the issues of the campaign from the rot tenness of the State administration and the foul- 1,249 immigrants that were on board the Island, from ness of Tammany Hall. This has been the one Christiansand, the Kaiser Wilhelm II and La Tournine effort of Richard Croker since Tammany Hall nominated Mr. Flower at Saratoga. The accusation which has been truthfully made has not been dealed. At rest for his menfirst, to draw the attention of the people from the infamous methods and criminal practices of this organization, it was said that the tariff would be discussed. Then there was Mr. Flower's record in J. W. Harrington; Vermont, H. C. H. Lewe.

GIFTS FOR A BABY HIPPOPOTAMUS.

FATIMA CELEBRATES THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF HER BIRTH.

Fatima, the baby hippopotamus in Central Park, celebrated her first birthday yesterday. When Hugh Downey, her keeper, came down in the early morning to see that all was well and give the hippopotami their breakfasts Park Policeman James Fitch leaned over the rail to offer the baby an extra fine loaf, but the grass was damp and his shoes were new. He slipped, a clutch at the rail and landed on the back of Caliph, father of the family. Hippopotami are not accustomed to seeing policemen in brass buttons tumbling on them, and the three, Caliph, Miss Murphy and Fatima, sunk at once under water. Fitch scrambled out of the pond in an incredibly short time, with no more harm than a ducking.

All through the day hundreds of people came to offer their congratulations to Fatima, and she really seemed to know that she was the point of attraction, and was by no means dutiful, for she frequently butted both her fother and mother. A little girl, Miss Grace Con-rad, brought a poundcake as a birthday present for Fatima, but the baby has no sweet tooth and rejected the kindly offering, which, however, was eagerly gob-bled up by her parents.

Seldom has there been a larger crowd than all day long yesterday hung around the Barge Office. They were not immigrants, but they were friends of the
